Our Legacy . . .

Freedom to learn enjoyably, freedom to express creatively, freedom to share our knowledge wisely, freedom to lead others to freedom.

But this freedom does not mean freedom from responsibility, from hardships in life, from duty to our fellow man. This freedom has been bought with a price, and it must be used like a precious gem.

There is mental freedom in our foundation of ideas as Freshmen, in our sustaining of thoughts as Sophomores, and in our labors of expression as Juniors. Finally, this freedom is brought to bear in our recognition of mature, understanding Seniors. Through these four years we can truly see our purposes as free individuals.

Through the high educational standards set for us, we leave treasuring our gifts of freedom----

Mrs. Seybert Hansel, for thirty-two years you have been a highly respected and admired teacher. We remember you--as many classes of the past, present, and future, have remembered and will remember. We remember you as a gentle voice that vanquished our anxieties on that first important day of our lives. We remember you as a guiding hand that led us through the huge, and to us, terrifying school.

You, Mrs. Hansel, first opened our young minds to the new and vast world of reading, writing, and numbers. Most important, you taught us the importance of working and playing together in our new social environment.

We appreciate all that you have done that has helped us to gain and to achieve.

It is to you, Mrs. Seybert Hansel, that the Senior Class of 1967 proudly dedicates
THE HIGHLANDER.

The activities of Highland High School range from Jessie Bird being Santa Claus to Mrs. Samples being "mother" to an Anaconda. The annual FHA initiation turned out with "wonders." Our local Game Warden gives a demonstration to the boys on safety rules for hunting. To improve our knowledge in the World of Science we are given a lecture on Progresses In Science.

The School Board Office is a busy place. It is there where the budget is prepared, personnel employed and supervised. Bus transportation is set up here, and extra-curricular activities approved. The curriculum that is followed in the four schools is carefully planned here. Records and reports are completed. This office hears complaints and tries to build up good relationship between teachers and parents. This office also supervises upkeep of all buildings.

English

When Sophomores begin saying "Friends, Romans, . . . ." we know that Julius Caesar is mighty yet! And Juniors study Sandburg, Frost, Whitman---and those lofty vocabulary words. Finally Seniors struggle with parallel structure, Shakespeare, and Chaucer and find how much there really is to this subject called English.

Mathematics

Mathematics - We all know what our fingers are for when we get into these classes! We are sure that Euclid would puzzle over some of the proofs we get in Geometry! Our mathematics classes do make us think and work. Here we receive the basic principles needed for everyday life and for further study in higher mathematics.

Algebra I

Mathematics 8

Geometry

Algebra II

Science

Science 8 and 9 give us a general look at the world of science, but Biology holds a special place in the hearts of those who love to dissect worms and frogs. In chemistry we wonder why the building is standing.

Science is the key that opens the doors of youthful minds, that will tomorrow turn many keys, that will unlock many doors, the doors to medical discovery, space exploration, human life, and to peace and freedom for all mankind.

Social Studies

World History with its projects of old empires, development of trade, and the countries of today. United States History with its Preamble to the Constitution! And all those charts, names, and facts should help anyone be better citizens. World Geography helps us to learn more about the topography and economic standing of the countries. In Government we learn the laws of our great country. This course helps us to learn more about how our government is run.

TYPING I

Overjoyed with no homework, bewildered when a finger gets caught between the keys.

TYPING II

Working for speed, dreading carbon copies, trying out electric typewriters.

SHORTHAND

Buying a fountain pen, trying to keep up with dictation, thinking, and scribbling.

BOOKKEEPING

Trying to keep assets and liabilities straight; drawing straight lines (with a ruler!) Trying to make those numbers check.

GENERAL BUSINESS

It's all in the game of keeping up with bank accounts, savings accounts, and at the same time, working for accuracy.

AGRICULTURE--SHOP We all know who the F.F.A. members are when initiation rolls around for "croaker-sack" dressed boys. The boys who take these courses are naturally resuming responsibilities of the Future Farmers of America.

In Home Economics many girls are learning how to become future homemakers and they will make good ones.

Boys & Girls State

Carolyn Hooke
Lewis Wysong

Each year a junior boy and girl are chosen to go to Boy's State and Girl's State. This is a program whereby they learn more about the ideals of democracy. Here they participate in a model city and state government which will enable them to become better citizens.

Code of Ethics

Carolyn Hooke and Stephen Galford were chosen to represent the following principles of the High School Code of Ethics:

1. To be true to myself and with an open mind maintain my convictions.
2. To develop a recognizable school loyalty and spirit.
3. To be honest and truthful and worthy of trust.
4. To win and lose in sports or in life with a smile.
5. To be diligent in the use of my talents and educational privileges.
6. To believe whole-heartedly in the ideals of democracy.
7. To develop a sense of gratitude and appreciation for all my blessings.

GOLDEN RULE: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

Fall Festival

The Fall Festival was opened this year by having a "Pretty Boy" Contest. Mr. Gerald Waggoner was chosen as Queen. To highlight the show, the "Supremes" (Misses Carolyn, Cindy, and Donna Hooke), "Napoleon III" (Miss Karen Lowry), and the "Mamas and the Papas" (Mr. & Mrs. James Moon, Mrs. Luther Hammer, and Mr. Glen Tustin) appeared before a "full house." Miss Jessie Bird was the Mistress of Ceremonies which added to the hilarity of the program. The remainder of the evening was spent at the various booths in the hall. The evening was ended by the crowning of Miss Phyllis Rexrode and Mr. Lewis Wysong as Queen & King of the Fall Festival.

The music fades, the stars grow dim,
The night too soon departs
And though it does, it leaves a mem'ry
Glowing in our hearts.

A glow that is the symbol of
The happy days we've known
Of countless friends and dreams
Come true

Of three years that have flown,
Of these short years that hurried by
And to them now we cling
As rather wistfully we reach
Our Prom---The final fling.

Senior Trip

The Senior Trip to Washington consisted of countless tours and many miles of walking. Naturally the theme carried out in the pictures show you the result of the many enjoyable hours spent touring our nation's capitol. The sad part of the trip was the thought that this would be our last trip together as a class.

1. Our bus driver, Mr. Curtis Amburn, added much to our trip. Right Mr. Tustin?
2. Hours and hours of touring the Smithsonian Institute resulted in rest and discussion about how many miles we had walked.
3. Carolyn is getting ready to meet Larry. The sickening smell of hairspray added much to the health of those who were already sick.
4. Mrs. Hiner and Mrs. Moon seem to be getting too old to cut the "mustard" anymore!
5. Donnie and Eddie are enjoying their naps and everyone knows that Maury's eyes aren't open; Gladys has gone completely beserk!
